EFUGEES TELL OF TERRORS IN BATTLE-SCARRED BELGIUM

the German Crown Prince's army, have been repulsed. Upper Alsace is free of the enemy except at points to westward of Colmar.

LONDON, Aug. 27 [Associated Press] .- A despatch to Exchange Telegraph Company from Ostend credits a gien officer from Namur with the statement that the there are still holding out, with the exception of Marchovelette and Cognelee, which were destroyed by the German bombardment.

The Belgians fought for two days, this officer says, and there is still a large force of Germans before Namur.

The foregoing despatch is in contradiction to the despatch from Berlin, received by wireless telegraphy this morning, declaring that all the forts at Namur have fallen and that Longwy had been captured by the Germans.1

Latest Official Bulletins From London and Paris

LONDON, Aug. 27 [Associated Press].-Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons to-day that Field Marshal Sir John French, commander of the British exditionary force, had reported that he was yesterday engaged against superior German forces.

The British troops fought splendidly, and Gen. French considered the prospects in the impending battle satis-

Premier Asquith added: "Gen. French speaks in high terms of the quality and efficiency of the French regular troops and their officers.'

PARIS, Aug. 27 [Associated Press].—An official statement issued this afternoon says:

"The events of yesterday in the region of the north have neither imperilled nor modified the arrangements made in view of the future development of operations in the region full speed to protect cotton and oil traffic in the Gulf of Mexico. between Vosges and Nancy. Our troops continue to pro-

the French, British and Russian Ministers to Belgium went the German ship Allisnea and the British cruiser Donegal has captured the together to call on the Belgian Minister of Foreign Affairs to express their indignation at the recent attempt of a German Zeppelin airship against the life of King Albert and the members of the Belgian royal family.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 [Associated Press].-The German Embassy to-day received the following by wireless from the Poreign Office at Berlin:

"A large number of prisoners, chiefly Turcos (French African) troops, and British soldiers passed through Aix-la-Chapelle to-day."

PARLIAMENT PAYS Belgian Army Strikes Hard at German Lines

ANTWERP (via Paris), Aug. 27 [Associated Press].-It Is officially announced that the Belgian operations have been completely successful. They have the double object of reducing the German entrenchments and of drawing the Germans from the line at Mechlin and Brussels, so as to relieve the pressure on the French positions.

Four Belgian divisions from Namur stopped the southward advance of the German Fourth Division by obliging It to retrace its steps. The Belgian troops then retreated on the French line. The forts at Namur are still holding out.

In the early raids upon suspected German strongholds In Antwerp 3,000 German rifles were seized in a deserted promise that the veil of secrecy shall fended England's entrance into the synagogue. A large quantity of ammunition was found in one of the German ships in the harbor in boxes labelled the House of Commons to-day by "We only intervene when con-

PARIS, Aug. 27 [Associated Press].—A refugee from rbes-le-Chateau, a town thirteen miles from Mons, said his arrival here that 360 Belgian riflemen posted in his we kept several thousand Germans at bay for three days.

A German spy, disguised in a Belgian uniform, finally swed them a path which enabled the Germans to take the lemen in their rear. All were killed except twelve villagers.

Servians Report Taking Fifty Austrian Cannon

NISH, Servia, Aug. 27 [United Press].-Official announcement was made to-day that, following the four day battle me the fifty mile front at the Drina in which the Austrian my of invasion was defeated by the Servians, the victorious vians are now driving the enemy toward Loznitza.

Every effort is being made by the Servian commander cut off the Austrian retreat and to annihilate the inding army.

Since last reports 2,000 additional prisoners have been en. In addition, the Servians have taken fifty cannon and large quantities of stores.

It is estimated that the Servian losses have been enorbecause of the necessity of carrying the Austrian He was howled down and not perposition by storm.

LONDON, Aug. 27 [Associated Press].-A despatch to Havas Agency from Kraguyevatz, Servia, declares that sitting and in stentorian tones de-Austrian army has evacuated the Sanjak of Novibazar.

The Sanjak of Novipazar is a strip of territory lying between iontenegro and Servia, and up to the time of the Balkan War in 1913, belonged to Turkey. By the Berlin Treaty of 1878 Austria-Hungary was empowered to garrison certain strategic po' to within the Sanjak, but these troops following the annexation by Austria of the Provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina were withdrawn.

During the Balkan Wars Austria-Hungary again seized the Sanjak. and this occupation in a large measure served to neutralize the Servian victories in those wars.

English Cruisers to Gult; Ships Captured or Sunk Galveston, Tex., Aug. 27 [Associated Press].—An official statement in the British Consulate to-day said three warships have been sent at Foreign Secretary said that it would fined the fight which occurred in the Chicago vosterday, that he had fined the curred in the Chicago vosterday, that he had fined the chicago club and Second, Baseman Zimmerm of the Chicago club and Second, Baseman Chicago club and Second chicago club and Second ch

Map Showing How Battle Lines of Allies and Germans Stand

The Brandenberg is a steamer of 7,532 tons, 430 feet long, commanded have been impossible without Eng-

> Sir Edward added that persons suggestions made by the German Ambassador were quite distinct from the communications which the Ambassa dor made on behalf of his govern ment. His suggestions worked for peace, but real authority did not rest with him and that was why the efforts for peace failed.

Premier Asquith, Bonar Law On Premier Asquith's motion the House adopted an address to King George praying His Majesty to convey to the King of the Belgians an expression of the admiration of Par liament for Belgium's heroic resistance to the German invasion. He LONDON, Aug. 27.-A positive eulogized Belgium at length and debe removed from the operations in war, insisting that no true English-

and John Redmond Join in Chorus of Praise.

Premier Asquith added: "Gen.

regular troops and their officers."

ment by the First Lord of the Ad-

Germany into an auxiliary cruiser, coast by the light cruiser Highflyer.

Afterward Keir Hardie, who opposed England's participation in the ward Grey, the Foreign Secretary, regarding the neutrality negotiations.

Timothy Healy, the Irish leader, ran across to where Keir Hardie was

"Do the Socialists in the German

This was greeted with long-con-

Sir Edward Grey paid a tribute to Prince Charles Max Lichnowsky, the former German Ambassador to Great Britain, saying that the diplomat that the real authority at Berlin did not rest with him, or those like him.

Sir Edward reiterated that the Government decided on Aug. 2 that Reichstag ask such questions?"

excellent."

members.

manded:

mitted to proceed.

tinued cheering.

Premier Asquith. Up to the present fronted with a choice of either keepit had been necessary for strategic ing or breaking our seiemn ar said but the Government was alive given the choice of discharging a to the necessity of relieving the pub-binding trust or of shameless sub-service. They were in action again; yesterday, fought a superior force of Germans and acquitted themselves splendidly. The prospects for a satisfactory outcome of the conflict are

French speaks in high terms of the quality and efficiency of the French Immediately following came a state ion, said:

"This motion will command the miralty Winston Churchill that the bog North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Gresse, converted by had been sunk off the West African There was great cheering by the John Redmond, on behalf of the Irish nation, said he associated himself with everything that had been said by the Prime Minister and Mr. Law. Continuing, he declared:

"In no quarter of the world has the heroism of the Belgian people excited more genuine enthusiasm and admiration than it has within the borders of Ireland."

The resolution was agreed to make the Belgian SAYS GERMANS,

BELGIAN SAYS GERMANS,

The resolution was agreed to unantmously amid cheering.

Moving in the House of Lords the same address of sympathy to Bulgium that was adopted in the House of Commons, the Marquis of Creare, Lord Privy Seal, declared: "Acts have been committed on the Belgians contrary to all the laws and usages of war. Sconer or later the Germans will have to pa; for their brutal methods to the urmost ferthing.

had worked to the end for peace, but ZIMMERMAN AND EVERS FINED $100 FOR FIGHTING.

the only condition under which Great Return and League, announced to-day, after investigating the fight which oc-land becoming a consenting party to He was successful in getting two injured men out of the forecastle, but four the violation of a treaty and, subse- others must have been killed in their sleep. quently, to a German invasion o

Two Trawlers Blown Up

By German Floating Mines

which was sunk by coming in contact with a floating mine in the North

See have been landed at Shields. Four of the crew of the trawler lost

Later the Exchange Telegraph Company announced that a second rawler, a Norwegian named the Gotifrid, also struck a floating mine and was sunk. Eight of her crew were drowned and four saved.

The captain of the trawler and three others were picked up from float ing wreckage and brought into Shields by the fishing boat Norden. Officers of the latter say they were alarmed all through the night by distant explosions, which followed each other at intervals from 9 P. M. to 4 A. M. At about six o'clock in the morning the lookout on the Norden sighted a man floating on a plank. He was picked up, and declared that the Gottfried had been blown up three hours earlier and had gone down immediately with eight members of her crew. The dead men had been literally blown to pieces. Later the captain of the Gottfried was found floating in a lifeboat and two others of her complement were rescued from floating wreckage.

REGISTER O'LOUGHLIN HITS AT PRENDERGAST FILED WITH SURROGATE

"Blocks Him Every-

Register O'Loughlin of Kings as sailed Comptroller Prendergast so Referring to the defense of Liego the Premier said:

"That chapter in Belgium's history will always be inspiring. By that act alone Belgium won immortal glory. We are proud of our alliance with Belgium and we will give her our support to the very end."

"This latter announcement was greeted by a wild storm of cheering. Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition, seconding Premier Asquith's motion, said:

tones that he would nave to Cought about by disapproval in the Register's office. It was the Comptroller who put the kibosh on the appropriation.

"This man," declared O'Loughlin, pointing at the Comptroller, blocks me averywher simply because I refuse to Referring to the defense of Liego tones that he would have to sit down.

"This motion will command the warmest approval, not only of the House of Commons, but of the nations engaged in this struggle, which was not sought by them and which neither wisdom nor their forebearance could have averted. The Belgian army has offered a resistance against overwhelming odds which has been as conspicuous as heroic and which has won the admiration of the whole world."

John Redmond, on behalf of the Irish nation, said he associated him panies.

lin of uttering untruths and was backed up by the other members of the Board of Estimate. When ordered

AFTER GALLANT CHARGE. SET FIRE TO ANVELAIS.

PARIS, Aug. 27 (Associated Press) .-A Belgian refugee, a hat manufacture, from the town of Anvelais, near Namur upon arrival here described the figh that took place in his home town French infantry held the place and after French infantry held the place and after some sharp rifle fire the Germans brought up their artillery. A shell foil close to the narrator's house, but luckily for him it failed to explode. French guns on the heights opened fire soon after the battle was started and their shells decimated the Germans. The French infantry retired from the bridge to permit their artillery to sweep its approaches.

Although they lost heavily, a certain number of Prussians succeeded in entering the village and threw into the

ORIGINAL NORDICA WILL

to Consult With New The original will of Lillian Nordica

Young, which was recently ordered by lic strain.

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the service. They were in action again.

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the service. They were in action again.

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the service. They were in action again.

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the declined."

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the declined."

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the declined."

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the declined."

"The British troops on the Continent," the Premier said, "are upholding the best traditions of the self-respecting nation without taking to order repeatedly by the Acting Mayor and finally told in threatening torney for George W. Young, husband torney for George W. Young, husband of the late operatic star. Mrs. Young died at Batavia, Java, on May 10, 1914, and left an estate valued at about $1,000,000.

A copy of Mrs. Young's will was A copy of Mrs. Young's will was filed recently by Robert S. Baldwin of White Plains, one of the executors, through his counsel. Walter W. West. all, who asked that a subpoena be pointing at the Comptroller, blocks me served upon the husband and his everywher simply because I refuse to counsel to compel them to file the

Mr. Tomlinson contended that the deceased was a resident of New Jerhe would have no will to file in New Jersey. The Surrogate, however, ruled that this County was the place the will should be filed.

Paran F. Rice, an attorney of Los Angeles, Cal., appeared in the case as counsel for Mrs. Imogene Castillo, of Los Angeles, sister of Mrs. Young. He came here, the lawyer said, to con-suit with Rollins & Rollins, of No. 32 Nassau street, and Wood, Henry & Meyers, of No. 62 William street, local unsel for Mrs. Castillo The original will was dated Jan. 10, PRINCE SEIZES A FLAG FROM INJURED SOLDIER. CARRIES IT TO VICTORY.

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, Aug. 26, vis London, Aug. 27.—Wounded soldiers ar-riving here relate that Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse, the Emperor's brother-n-law, while leading his regiment during a recent battle, seized a flag from the hands of the wounded flag bearer and carried it on to victory. The Empress has gone to the prov-ince of Hesse-Nassau in order to in-spect the hospitals there.

WINNERS AT SARATOGA.

FIRST RACE-Rupica, 11 to 20 and out, won; Sand Bank, even and out.

BELGIAN REFUGEES BRITAIN'S SECOND TELL OF HORRORS SEEN ABOUT LIEGE

Pitiful Stories of Lost Relatives, Brutal Soldiers and Starving Children.

PARIS, Aug. 27 (By Associated Press).—The Cirque de Paris, where the crowd of Belgian refugees has grown to 2,500, has taken on the aspect of a human stable.

The floors of the wide foyers are covered with straw, and the homeless and poverty stricken people may be seen lying about, many in attitudes of sad dejection. Trained nurses of the Red Cross, priests, soldiers and doc-At the entrance to the hall a large ment of troops was completed. cask containing beer was placed and a soldier was soon apportioning the nouncing the reclosing of the port beverage to a waiting line of men

FEW ESCAPED FROM HOMES WITH BAGGAGE.

Inside the amphitheatre were chil-'ren of all ages, sizes and descriptions. The scarcity of bargage was AMERICAN SKIPPERS noticeable, every one apparently having taken only the fer things that TOLD TO DISPLAY COLORS could be easily carried in their hasty flight. The evening meal consisted of a huge slice of bread with a piece of Hint From British Admiral That beef on top, and afterward black coffee was served

An old man, s'ting in a corner on i sack of straw, told the following 'People call e Jear. Beaujon. I have a little wine shop across the their flags at rea will do away with river from Liege in the town of the embarrassment of search by Britlvegnee. When the nobilization or- ish cruisers has been sent by Sir der was as ... need, my two sons, Christopher Cradock, Admiral of the both fine fellows, went off to join British North Atlantic fleet, to Sectheir regiments. My daughters-I have two, this one here and another -remained with their old father."

He motioned to a bright-eyed girl day in the following telegram: of about sixteen, but only her eyes were visible, as the rest of her face was swathed in bandages. He con-

When they came, they demanded sentation is made that merchant vessels would be spared much inconvenience and delay if they displayed their colors at once when called upon fell against the counter and she fell against the counter and broke her jaw."

The old man then told of their flight and the hardships they endured. LOST HIS OTHER DAUGHTER ON THE ROADSIDE.

"My other daughter, becoming very tired after a time," he went on, "sat down by the roadside, while this little girl and I went on ahead to try to find some means of conveyance. A little further on we came upon a four cents.

Wheat sained three cents and December four cents. riderless horse and after great difficulty we both succeeded in mounting and went back to find my daughter. We had not been gone more than Brooklyn Official Says Comptroller Sister in Los Angeles Sends Lawyer half an hour, but when we returned she was no longer there.

"Where she went I don't know. We of whom are American refugees. An spent the rest of the night looking for her, but found no sign or trace of cans desiring it to New York on a spe he.. The rest of the time, until we got on the train that brought us here, I was cared for by the Red Cross. I ANDREW'S CHURCH FOR POPE PIUS don't know where they found me or anything else, except that I have day Aug 25, at 12 by nonetary amount fequile will be also anything else, except that I have in Geneva yesterday as the report that special trains arranged by the Ameircan Embassy in Paris would leave daily, beginning yesterday.

Dr. H. H. Fries of New York, who arrived from Geneva this morning, brought this news. He also described the keen disappointment of the Americans when they found that Major Edward F. Lawton, the American when they found that am military attache at Berne, had been unable to complete the arrange-been unable to complete the arr Ments for the railway service.

Notices regarding the proposed train service, he said, were posted but changed from hour to hour. It was hoped that the trains would be-

Southampton Again Closed to Commerce, as When First Army Started for Continent.

The White Star officials here received a cablegram from the London office to-day giving instructions that the Olympic and the American line cesels, until further notice, would not touch at Southampton, but would land passengers at Liverpool.

Southampton was closed to commerce during the time when the British expeditionary force was sent to tors are constantly moving among the Continent and was reopened by the crowd, ministering to their wants. the British Admiralty when the move-

The text of to-day's despatch anwas not made public, but the impression prevailed in shipping circles that England is preparing to send her second army of 100,000 men to the battle

Celerity Will Save Embarrassment of Search.

A delicate hint to American skippers that more celerity in displaying retary of the Treasury McAdoo. The latter passed on the tip to Collector of the Port Dudley Field Malone to-

"The Treasury Department has been ras swathed in bandages. He coninued:

"You see her poor, dear face? Well,
German was the cause of that,

"You see her poor, dear face? Well,

"You see her p

WHIRL IN WHEAT GOES ON

Prices Again Bid Up During Excited Trading in Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.-The excitement in wheat was renewed when the market

Ambania Docks at Montreal The Cunard steamship offices an liner Ambania, on the Liverpool-Montreal run, had docked at Montreal early to-day with 1,098 passengers, most

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. LOST - Woman's diamond ring, between 5th and Atlantic are, and 726 Precident at., Brooklyn;

MOLASSES DAINTIES—Every of good, Pure, Sweet Molasses will identify this assortment as ection of all the favorites, 10c

Let Us Tempt You With the Following:
OLD DUTCH STYLE CREAM CHOCOLATES—One of our eldest and most popular offerings. The cruires are of mellow Suare Cream, richly flavored with the Juices of Itacions fresh fruits. The outside inchets are Bitter-Sweet Chocolate. Spinendly variable of Chocolate. POUND BOX

CRYSTALLIZED PRUIT W. Sparkling blg discs of rich Cream, delightfully flavor Orange, Lemon, Straw. tharkling blg dhea of rich Fondant ream. delightfully flavored Van. Drange. Lemon. Straw. Lerry. Maple. Chocolete and 10C Pistachlo. FOUND BOX

Special for Friday CHOCOLATE COVERED MARSH-MALLOWS-Hig. rich, creamy, fluffy sweet-as-honey Marshmallows en-robed in a cloak of our unmatchable fragrant Chorolate. Our 19c

64 BARCLAY STREET
Come 6 30 P. M. Set. 10 P.M.
20 CORTLANDT STREET
Closes 11 P. Dall
400 BROOME STREET
Closes 11 P. M. Dall
400 BROOME STREET
Closes 10 P. M. Dall
88 EAST 23d STREET
Closes 10 P. M. Dall
472 FULTON St., BROOKLIN
Goess 11.50 P. M. Dall TOO BROADWAY

Closes 7 P. M.; Sai., 10 F. W.
147 NASSAU STREET

Close 6, 30 F. M.; Sai., 9 P. M.
266 WEST 135th STREET

Close 11.30 F. M. Delly,
23 WEST 54th STREET

Close 17 F. M.; Sai., 10 F. M.
149th ST. & THIRD AV.

Ulcase 13 F. M. Delly,

187 MARKET ST. NEWARE

Close 13 F. M. Delly,

The specified weight includes the container in each case.